PAUL METZGER

Paul Metzger is currently in his 27th year of teaching instrumental music. He is currently in his 16th year at Henderson South Middle School. Prior to that, Mr. Metzger taught 11 years in Indiana at the high school and middle school levels.

The South Middle School Band program has consistently received distinguished ratings at Kentucky Music Educator events as well as other competitions throughout the region. The band has been selected to perform at the KMEA In-service Conference several times. Mr. Metzger is active as an adjudicator and clinician in Kentucky and throughout the region. He has twice served as clinician for the Alberta Band Directors Association week long concert band festival in Red Deer, Alberta, Canada, and as been guest conductor of numerous honor band festivals. In 1999 he was selected as the KMEA Middle School Teacher of the year.

Mr. Metzger is member of KMEA, MENC, American Band Directors Association, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Phi Beta Mu. He has served in several elected positions with these Organizations and remains active in their pursuits.

He lives in Henderson with his wife of 20 years, Ann, and their daughter Elizabeth, 17.

WILLIAM BRIAN HOGG

Mr. William Brian Hogg received his Bachelor of Science Degree at Austin Peay State University, Clarksville Tennessee, in 1966. Mr. Hogg completed a Master of Music Degree in Jazz Studies at the University of Cincinnati-College Conservatory of Music in 2003.

William Hogg is a regular fixture in the professional music scene and travels extensively playing with groups such as the Coasters, the Temptations, the Cab Calloway Orchestra, the Dells, and Dynasty Productions. He has worked with the critically acclaimed Cincinnati Pops, has been featured soloist with the Kentucky Symphony, the Blue Ash Symphony and is a regular member of top performing groups in the Tri-State area including Psycho-Acoustic Orchestra and the Mike Wade Quintet. William Hogg has traveled the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom as a performing artist at a variety of festivals and venues.

As a recording artist William Hogg, in collaboration with the group Schvilkus, won a nomination for Best Jazz/Instrumental Group at the National Association of Music Merchants 1999 Convention. He can also be found playing on recordings with such artists as Fred Wesley, Bootsie Collins, The Gorshorn Brothers, and a number of radio, television, motion picture, and commercial recordings.

Theatre performances include the OFF Broadway hit Love, Janis at Actor's Theatre, Louisville Kentucky, and the Cincinnati Playhouse , Cincinnati Ohio.

As an educator, Hogg teaches saxophone, flute, and clarinet around the Cincinnati/ Northern Ky area. Hogg was honored for his outstanding contributions to Jazz education at Campbell County High School. Hogg taught two years at Northern Kentucky University as the Lecturer of Saxophone and Jazz Studies.

The Northern Kentucky Band Directors' Association wishes to thank the following for making this concert possible:

Rehearsal and performance facilities provided by Northern Kentucky University.

Programs and type-setting provided by
Wert Music

Special thanks to the students, parents and all the supporters of music education in our schools for making music an academic priority.
